TVA OIG Semiannual Report to Congress Available Online

The TVA Office of the Inspector General's Semiannual Report to Congress is now available on the OIG Web site. The report outlines OIG accomplishments from Oct. 1, 2006 through March 31, 2007. "The report demonstrates the depth of oversight coverage by the Office of the Inspector General and is indicative of the significant issues being addressed by our work," said Inspector General Richard Moore.

During the reporting period, Audit Operations questioned $1,252,456 in TVA costs and $8,913,475 in TVA funds were identified that could be put to better use. Investigative Operations opened 73 cases and closed 50; in addition, investigative accomplishments included monetary recoveries and projected savings to TVA exceeding $400,000. You can visit our website at oig.tva.gov to access the report.

How to contact the OIG about concerns

The TVA OIG encourages employees, contractors and the general public to report any suspected fraud, waste or abuse affecting TVA programs and operations by calling 1-877-866-7840 (toll-free) or going online at www.oigempowerline.com. For more information about reporting concerns to the OIG, visit the OIG website at oig.tva.gov.
