Dear Ms. Matthews:

We have reviewed the system of internal safeguards and management procedures for the Office of Investigations, Office of Inspector General, Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA-OIG) in effect for the period ending December 31, 2018. Our review was conducted between March 25-28, 2019, in conformity with the Quality Standards for Investigations and Quality Assessment Review Guidelines for Investigative Operations of Federal Offices of Inspector General established by the Council of the Inspectors General on Integrity and Efficiency (CIGIE), and the Attorney General Guidelines for the Office of Inspectors General with Statutory Law Enforcement Authority, as applicable.

We reviewed compliance with the TVA-OIG system of internal policies and procedures to the extent we considered appropriate. The review was conducted at the Knoxville, TN, headquarters location. Additionally, we sampled 21 of the 77 investigations closed during calendar year 2018 and interviewed OIG staff.

In performing our review, we gave consideration to the prerequisites of Section 6(e) of the Inspector General Act of 1978, as amended, (IG Act) and Section 812 of the Homeland Security Act of 2002 (Pub.L. 107-296). Those documents authorized law enforcement powers for eligible personnel of each of the various offices of presidentially appointed Inspectors General. Those powers may be exercised for activities authorized by the IG Act, other statutes, or expressly authorized by the Attorney General.
In our opinion, the system of internal safeguards and management procedures for the investigative function of TVA-OIG in effect for the period ending December 31, 2018, was in compliance with the quality standards established by CIGIE and the applicable Attorney General guidelines. These safeguards and procedures provide reasonable assurance of conforming to professional standards in the planning, execution, and reporting of its investigations.

Sincerely,

Deborah Jeffrey
Attachment A – List of Visited Field Offices

The review was conducted at the TVA-OIG headquarters located in Knoxville, TN. In addition to its headquarters location, TVA-OIG has its investigation personnel located at three field offices in Nashville, TN, Chattanooga, TN, and Huntsville, AL. CNCS-OIG spoke to investigative personnel at TVA-OIG headquarters and from each field office. We found that the individuals interviewed were receiving adequate support and proper oversight.

Areas for Potential Improvement

1. During the review, investigators noticed TVA-OIG policies did not specify procedures for digital forensic analysis to be conducted by outside agencies. TVA-OIG had extensive policies for internal digital forensic analysis performed by TVA-OIG staff, but no specific procedures for digital forensics performed by outside agencies.

Recommendation: Revise the digital forensics policy to add procedures for analysis conducted by an outside agency and set up an agreement with an outside agency that will be available to provide forensics if needed.

Response to Recommendation

We agree with the review team’s recommendation and are in the process of implementing the suggested changes to include revising the digital forensics policy to add procedures for analysis conducted by an outside agency and set up an agreement with an outside agency that will be available to provide forensics if needed. These changes will be fully implemented upon identification and finalization of the necessary agreements with the outside agency.

2. The investigative staff training records demonstrated that TVA-OIG provided its investigators with a significant amount of quality training, on topics such as recent trends in investigative procedures, whistleblower law and employee handbooks. However, the training records showed no recent training in interviewing techniques, as required by TVA-OIG’s Investigative Manual.

Recommendation: Conduct periodic training on interviewing techniques with all investigative staff and include it in the recurring training program. Also include in TVA-OIG’s policy how often investigative staff must take interviewing techniques training.

Response to Recommendation

We agree with the review team’s recommendation and are scheduling a refresher course on interviewing techniques for all investigative staff. Additionally, interviewing techniques training will be included in the recurring training program to be conducted annually, and our policy will be updated to reflect this requirement.

Dear Ms. Matthews:

During the course of our review we noted areas for potential improvement, which do not impact your office’s compliance rating.

In particular, the reviewers observed the following:

1. During the review, investigators noticed TVA-OIG policies did not specify procedures for digital forensic analysis to be conducted by outside agencies. TVA-OIG had extensive policies for internal digital forensic analysis performed by TVA-OIG staff, but no specified procedures for digital forensics performed by outside agencies.

Recommendation: Revise the digital forensics policy to add procedures for analysis conducted by an outside agency and set up an agreement with an outside agency that will be available to provide forensics if needed.
2. The investigative staff training records demonstrated that TVA-OIG provided its investigators with a significant amount of quality training, on topics such as recent trends in investigative procedures, whistleblower law and employee handbooks. However, the training records showed no recent training in interviewing techniques, as required by TVA-OIG’s Investigative Manual.

Recommendation: Conduct periodic training on interviewing techniques with all investigative staff and include it in the recurring training program. Also include in TVA-OIG’s policy how often investigative staff must take interviewing techniques training.
